I give White all the credit in the world for staying the limit, as I had fully counted on putting him away. I gave away ten pounds to meet him, and, of course, the weight counted in his favor. I thought I had him going in the first round, but his clinching kept me from deing my most effective work. White was constantly setting in and hugging and stantly getting in and hugging an had my neck in many e tight squeez He persisted in holding on and had h stood up all the time for clean bitting there is no doubt but that I would have put him away. I am willing to meet him again, and at any time or place." Tommy White said: "Terry is an awful hard fighter and never lets up. In the first three rounds I fought purely on the defensive, and kept McGovern off as much as possible. After a rest I am perfectly willing to meet him again,"
